

Penticton Herald, Tuesday, September 9, 2003

ALAN HEARREN/Special to the Herald

No Illusions edges out in front of Dazed and Confused in the Rocket Fleet race at the Okanagan Grand Prix Regatta Sunday on Okanagan Lake. No Illusions, skippered by Ken Hope of Penticton, ended up finishing first in the race.

No Illusions on Okanagan Lake

Penticton regatta sails through windy weekend

By Penticton Herald Staff

Thirty-seven boats and crew of about 140 sailors from all over B.C. took part in the Penticton Yacht and Tennis Club's Okanagan Grand Prix Regatta on Okanagan Lake Saturday and Sunday.

"The competition was tough, but strong winds, and lots of sun made the racing fantastic," said PYTC spokesman Bill Everett.

Each race was approximately four kilometres in distance. Results from the two-day event are as follows:

■ A Fleet: First — Rattle and Hum (skipper Randy Vogel, from Vancouver); Second — Habonara (skipper Ben Munford); Third — Frail Knot (skipper Bill Ewert).

■ B Fleet: First — Storm Castle Rock (skipper

Paul Smedley, from Kelowna); Second — Sunseeker (skipper Adrian Weaden); Third — Hopscotch (skipper David Hayes).

■ C Fleet: First — Wildfire (skipper Harvey Ryll, from Penticton); Second — Chaos (skipper Tom Guenther); Third — Truly Fair (skipper Andy McGregor).

■ Rocket Fleet: First — No Illusions (skipper Ken Hope, from Penticton); Second — Shukidake (skipper Mike Kidd); Third — Fitzouraldo (skipper Joe Andersen).